

1 Constitution, we would have done so, and the reason we 2 didn't was because we thought the whole business about 3 the state's attorneys, except the fact that they should 4 be popularly elected, should be left to the General Assembly,
5 and this would freeze one particular aspect of the state's 6 attorneys, and it would be contrary to the desires of the 7 executive branch committee.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to speak
9 in favor of the amendment?

10 Delegate Boileau.

11 DELEGATE BOILEAU: Yes, I do, Mr. Chairman.

12 I hate to disagree with the chairman of my 13 committee but I do remember there being two sections
14 offered and language for us to vote on; the second one 15 which did not receive the majority did include a line or 16 two in it that made reference to cross filing and was 17 substantially the same as the amendment offered by 18 Delegate Byrnes.

19 I might note that the committee, as Delegate
20 Byrnes so ably pointed out, did think enough of this of-21 fice to include it as a Constitutional office. There
